• WHAT A DAY!

Birthday, anniversary... what's the point of having a special day if you can't flaunt it on a cute piece of silver jewelry? These keepsakes from Not Just Any Old Day feature a silver calendar charm made with a Swarovski crystal birthstone on the important date. All orders are custom and take about a week to turn around, but stores can stock up on their favorite days for display. Wholesales, $64 for a charm to $188 for 20-inch necklace and charm. Call 818-359-5948, or go to Notjustanyoldday.com

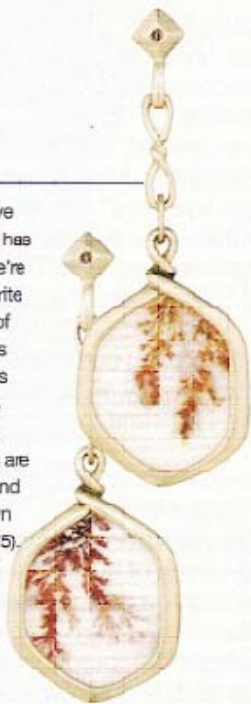

• LEATHER IN BLOOM

Ever wander around a flea market and wonder where all those little items had been in their earlier lives? What girl in the '40s wore that pin and where did she go on her date? How did that girl in the '50s feel when her mom gave her that necklace before her prom? These are the stories that live on in today's jewelry made from vintage pieces. Designer Donna Silvestri hand-knots and hand-beads each of her creations from her line On U Jewelry, making them even more precious and one-of-a-kind. Antique buttons, ribbons and other materials (above, leather flowers) find their way into her designs. Call 804-288-1587, or go to Onujewelry.com.

• BRANCHING OUT

Renowned for its extensive array of watches, Ecolissi has expanded into jewelry. We're dazzled by the new dendrite agate collection: As part of the chalcedony family, this rare stone is revered for its varied distinctive patterns that often resemble trees. These geometric earrings are framed in 14-karat gold and accented by natural brown diamonds (wholesale $275). Call 212-967-6666, or go to Ecolissi.com.
